

- 1 -

I want to write my Main Idea. I need a Main Clause.

MC1

- 3 -

- 2 -

I want to start

This is the beginning of my sentence.

I start with a Capital Letter

CL

This is not the beginning of my sentence.

I start with a lower case letter

lc

One	1	The Noun always lives here	Two	2	The Full Verb always lives here	Three	3	The Noun and his friends sometimes visit
The Noun House		Sometimes his friends visit	The Verb House		Sometimes her friends visit	The Holiday House		The Full Verb never visits
Grammar books call this the Subject			Grammar books call this the Verb			Grammar books call this the Object
I MUST write a Noun here			I MUST write a Verb here			I might write extra information here.
						I CAN'T write a Verb here.

I want to finish	.
	!

I want to add another Main Idea	for and nor but or yet so

The Main Clause is also called a Simple Sentence.

I use a Simple Sentence when I want to	write only one Main Idea.
	write an impact sentence.
	write fast action sentences.

I want to add an Extra Idea
------------------------------------	--

I want to add Noun friends and Verb friends

One	1	The Noun always lives here	Two	2	The Full Verb always lives here	Three	3	The Noun and his friends sometimes visit
The Noun House		Sometimes his friends visit	The Verb House		Sometimes her friends visit	The Holiday House		The Full Verb never visits

The Noun's Friends

The Verb's Friends

Article	a, an, the, ∅*	Tells us a lot about the Noun.	Adverb	quickly, happily	Describes the Verb.	Remember five important things here.
	A	A grey cat was asleep up on the couch.			Everyone ran happily towards the water.
Adjective	big, fast	What sort of Noun?	Modal	would, should	Tells what we think of a Verb.		1	This is the Holiday House so sometimes it is empty and no-one is here at all.
		The fast car drove along the street.			You should come to the party.
Comparative	taller, better	Compares two Nouns.	Particle	up, out	Helps with some Verbs.		2	The Noun and all his friends can visit this House.
		The taller son got into the basketball team.			We caught up with them
Superlative	funniest, best	Tells me the first or last Noun in a group.	Auxiliary	am, have	Tells us the time of the Verb.	3	The Full Verb NEVER visits. She is too busy doing Verb things in the Verb House.
		The funniest girl in the class is Jenny.			He is sleeping. (Here, is means now.)
Counter (Quantifier)	some, many	How many Nouns?			didn't, isn't	Tells us if a Verb is + or -.	4	The Adverb can visit: We ran down the hill quickly.
		Some people think that English is hard.			We didn't go. Here, did means that * go was past and * n't means go didn't happen.
Pointer (Determiner)	this, that	Which Noun/s?					5	The Particle can visit as well: We picked her up from the station.
		This Thursday is my birthday!
Preposition	to, from, on	Where/When is the Noun?
		The book on the shelf is mine.
Possessive	my, yours	Whose Noun?
		My dad is really funny.
Pronoun	he, she, it	replaces the Noun.
		They are my cousins.

* This is called the Zero article. It means that we don't use an article.
For example, we might say, "I like watching ∅ movies."